Knot IN IT.

That's where you are if you fail to buy one of our BLACK WORSTED SUITS.

There is a time when popularity counts for something; when party lines are strictly drawn, when political disputes run high, and the voice of the orator is heard in the land. There is one subject, however, concerning which there can be no differences of opinion.

Black Worsted Suits
Can't be Beaten.

There isn't any use of nominating anything against them. They have all the elements contributing to a walk over. There is more in them for the money you pay than your money ever bought before.

NOTHING CAN BE TRUER THAN THIS:

You are simply "not in it" if you don't buy and buy quickly.

Widow Strevel, living one mile west and two miles south of Yale met with a rather heavy loss this week. One of her most valuable cows was missing at time of milking and on going out into the woods found that while it was trying to scratch its head with one of its fore legs caught the horn in the cords of the leg and in this manner killed itself.

Since Dr. P. G. Lathrop moved into the McArthur block his trade has been steadily and rapidly increasing. He recently added some new apparatus to his well furnished office, and expects in a few days to have his rooms repaired and will then have as neat a suite of dental parlors as one may desire. The Dr. is a good workman and deserves the success he is meeting with.

A rumor was in circulation before the death of Mrs. Butler to the effect that the family did not care to have visitors come to the house, which prevented the calls that a good many would have made out of sympathy and good feeling. Dr. Will Gowan informs us that there was no ground for such a report as they were pleased at all times to receive their friends and acquaintances.

At the regular meeting of the K. O. T. M. lodge Tuesday evening a large attendance was noted. Wm. Strong was elected delegate to the Great Camp of the State of Michigan to be held in Detroit Aug. 31st. John Baxter was elected alternate. As advertised, ice cream and cake were served to every body's fullest satisfaction, in fact we believe some had a little more than was good for them. A number who had not taken the oriental were given that degree. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent.

J. S. Duffie, who has for the past four months been in the employ of B. W. Boyd in the corner drug store, is about to leave us. He is in partnership with A. E. Leonard, of Peck, has purchased the drug stock of R. M. Weed & Co., at Deckerville, and will soon take possession of the same. With Mr. Duffie, departs the best wishes of the host of friends he has made in his short stay here, and all unite with us in hoping that his success may be unbounded, which we predict will be his lot.—Crosswell Democrat.

Our base ball boys have challenged the Richmond club to play a matched game at Yale next Monday. If Richmond meets Yale on the diamond you may look for a most interesting game.

—WEEKLY EXPOSITOR. Manager Fanning of the local team informs The Review that he has not received a challenge from Yale, but several days ago called up the Yale manager by telephone and endeavored to make arrangements for a game but was unable to do so. If the Yale boys wish a game with the Richmond team they should address Mr. Fanning, who would be pleased to hear from them.—Richmond Review.

The Expositor job rooms has turned out a large amount of work the past two weeks which is giving entire satisfaction. We are at work on the premium lists for the fall fair and expect to have them out in two weeks. Business men and others who desire to advertise in the book should leave their advertisement at the Expositor office and it will receive proper attention.

Died, in Yale, on Friday, July 15, 1892, at the home of her father Alex. Lothian, Janet Lothian, aged 33 years. The funeral sermon was preached from the M. E. church on Sunday by Rev. C. C. Sink. Miss Lothian has been ill for some time with consumption and her death was not unlooked for. All unite in sympathy with this afflicted family who so short a time ago lost a son and brother with the same disease.

Mahlon Bearss has been putting up several monuments in the different cemeteries near the village within the past week, which are very fine and of course come from the Port Huron firm of Harper & Forbes. The Lutz monument is of creole marble, the Andreac red scotch granite, with coping around lot and hewn stone steps making a very handsome piece of work. The Mosher monument is also of red scotch granite. In the McFadden cemetery the Jas. Ricks monument is of creole marble. In the Brockway cemetery a marker was placed for the husband of Mrs. Martin Menerey also one for her daughter, wife of Alfred Young. A monument was also erected to the memory of Henry Schroeder. A marker was also put up by Mr. Bearss to the memory of Lizette Darcy.

The musicale and doll drill which was given Tuesday evening at Central hall by the Epworth League was well attended. The orchestra rendering some fine music before the program, which was duly appreciated. Some changes had to be made in the program on account of the absence of Mrs. Geo. Allen. The program was all good, but special mention might be made of the instrumental duet by Mabel Moore and Lulu High which received an encore and the quartette by Ed Palmer, Herbie Somers, Ina Palmer and Ida Grinnell; also the quartette by four sisters, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Griffith, Anna and Mary Kilpatrick, daughters of Rev. Jesse Kilpatrick. The doll drill was performed to the delight of all present. The program was announced by Edith Holden.

The following item of news we clip from the Sunday Herald of July 16th, 1892.—The People's party of St. Clair county will hold a convention in the city hall at Port Huron on Saturday, July 30th, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention which meets at Jackson August 2nd, 1892; also for the purpose of electing delegates to the congressional and senatorial conventions and to more fully complete and arrange work for the approaching campaign. A cordial invitation is extended to all persons who endorse and will support the demands of the St. Louis platform as framed Feb. 22nd, 1892. Prominent speakers from the rural townships are expected to be present to address the convention.

Palace Hall Furniture Store.

Why do I have the finest furniture trade in Port Huron?
1st. Because I show the finest assortment. 2d. Because I sell at reasonable prices.
Why do I have the leading retail trade on baby carriages?
Because I carry the very best makes and sell them just as cheap as the poorer carriages can be bought.

I want to sell more furniture in 1892 than I did in 1891. To do this I know you will expect extra inducements and I am offering them.

To parties wishing to furnish an entire house, also to hotel men, I am prepared to give very low figures.

Be sure you read the sign Palace Hall Furniture Store.
